A MEDLEY OF NOTABLES: What they said and what others said of them. By G. F. S. This little book contains on one side of each page a quotation from some well-known author, and on the other side a brief notice of this author by other authors. If we turn to Shakespeare, for instance, we find quoted Dame Quickly's description of Falstaff's death, while there are given notices of Sir Walter Scott, Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Gaskell, and by some anonymous writer who likely enough is the editor. From him we learn that "Shakespeare went before all men, and stands in the array of human intellect like the sun in the system, single and unappropriated."—Saturday Review.
